PRAYER

Almighty Father,

We praise you and we glorify your name for no name is greater and there is no one more worthy. We are so grateful that you are an all-powerful God and a perfect Father.

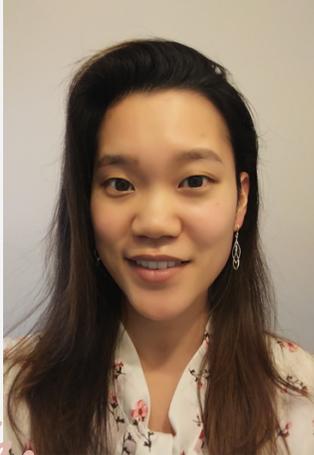

Thank you for bridging the endless chasm between us and You through the ultimate sacrifice of your Son. Teach us to recognize all the ways you are always good and all the ways you have everything within your hand.

We continue to pray for our church and the leaders, the members of our church, the hurting brothers and sisters that are near us and far from us, and your church across this world.

Teach us how to love how you have loved us, and give your hearts that burn and long only for you. In Christ's precious name we pray, Amen.

What are your spiritual gifts and how do you think God uses them?

I believe my spiritual gifts are empathy and prayer. So if you have prayer requests or need to pray with someone just ask (or submit anonymously to here). I'm always open to pray :). Currently I am the prayer team leader so if you have a heart to pray for others please let me know! (All the shameless plugs, haha.)

What is something about you that might surprise others?

I am actually pretty introverted. I'm only outgoing when I meet new people. Also my sense of humor is a little quirky (yes it's actually a quirky sense of humor not a non-existent one) so people really don't understand my jokes and I'm even worse at understanding them. The only jokes I actually get are the really good puns. I'm secretly the coolest out of my siblings.

How has your transition from student to work life been?

It's more difficult than I thought. I think one reason is because in undergrad there were breaks in between classes but for work it's basically 8 hours straight. Another challenge that I found was knowing the right questions to ask and setting your own tasks/deadlines. Surprisingly work isn't straight forward as doing tasks A and B. There are many nuances when it comes to projects and work relations that aren't covered as much in school as it should be. One piece of advice I would give is to not be afraid to ask a bunch of questions and find the people that can answer them.
