PRAYER

Our merciful Father,

We worship and praise you, for we are so grateful that you have allowed us to become your children and to take part in your will. Please forgive us when we fail to be the salt and light, forgive us for lusting after the vapor-like things of the world, and forgive us for all the other sins we commit without even knowing.

Thank you for loving us first in our wretched imperfection and saving us from ourselves. Please let the Holy Spirit overflow in our souls, and give us the confidence and power to live out your will on this earth. Keep us awake and prepared for the Son's return, and please raise and refine us to be messengers and warriors of your kingdom.

We pray in humility, in faith, in worship, and in hope.

We love you and praise you,

Amen.

What's your favorite way to spend a day off?

My favorite way to spend a day off is to start with QT in the morning at a coffee shop with friends. After hanging out, we would get some good food. Then, I would wanna go golfing with my dad. After that, we would get a good meal and watch some sports or watch a movie to end the day.

What is something about you that might surprise others?

If you know me know me, you know this fact about me. "I really like shoes lol." Growing up I went to a Christian school from K-12 and we had to wear uniforms every day so... the only thing I could choose to wear were shoes. Let's just say I have a good amount of shoes and I really enjoy various types and fashions. Just a fun hobby and I enjoy going to various sneaker conventions around town!

What are your spiritual gifts and how do you think God uses them?

I believe my spiritual gifts are serving and discernment. I believe God can use me by giving me opportunities to serve His people in various roles. In undergrad and dental school, being a Bible study leader or CG leader, it has been a rewarding experience where God is able to fill my heart through the people I serve. I believe I have the gift of discernment as well. God can use this through gift through me by giving me the great ability to listen well and empathize well. Through conversations and listening, I believe I can learn more about a person and do my best to see them as how the Lord sees them.

What is the best piece of advice that you have ever received?

Give all the Glory to God.

For me, this piece of advice has changed my life and has given me a different perspective on life. It helps you give perspective on who is the center of your life and why we live this life. We are to be disciples of Christ and spread the Gospel to those around us. During this, we are to do this in community with other believers and help encourage other in our individual walks with the Lord.

Tell us about your current challenges. How can we pray for you?

My current challenge is I am too fixated and worried what the future is going to look like. This fall, I will be starting to do in person classes at OSU (for the first time), so that is going to be a big adjustment and I am really hoping I can balance things well. At the end, I want to prioritize the Lord and what He wants me to do for His Kingdom.

What are you studying and why?

I am studying dentistry. Along with enjoying studying science, I have a passion for serving people and helping build their self-confidence. While dentistry and dentists has helped me in my morale, I hope to encourage and build people up as a I serve them and give them a big smile.

What do you wish you had known before starting school?

I wish I knew that it's okay to ask questions. It's okay to know that you don't know, and it gives you, the person asking the question, the best interest to admit that you need help. The theme of my undergraduate experience is that you need mentors and advice from those that has been there and trust their advice.
